Hazel Green, AL - United States - October 31, 2016 - Airkooled Kustoms, an established leader in custom classic Volkswagen and Porsche restoration, today announced plans to attend this year's Specialty Equipment Market Association (SEMA) Show in Las Vegas as the guest of 3M Collision Repair Solutions.

"We are excited to be 3M's guest at this year's SEMA show, and are looking forward to seeing the latest developments in the automotive world," said Airkooled Kustoms Founder, Eric "Spook" LeClair. "We'd like to give a Darkside Shout-Out to 3M Collision Repair Solutions. For the past 12 years they have helped us get way more semi-satisfied with the projects we build. Our OCD requirements for fit and finish will never allow us to be completely satisfied - but 3M helps us get as close as possible. They've been a great partner in our business by continually bringing innovation to the table. Here's to many more years of pushing to the next level of shiny and safe."

SEMA is the premier automotive specialty products trade event in the world, and is not open to the general public. Featuring product demonstrations, educational seminars, and typically attracts more than 100,000 exhibitors and buyers. At this year's show, more than 2,500 new products are slated for display, covering more than a million square feet at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Says Inge G. Thulin Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, "3M harnesses the power of science to make the world safer, more efficient and more prosperous. We use science to solve impossible challenges with our customers, and to stretch toward our vision of advancing every company, enhancing every home and improving every life." The company's abrasives, adhesives, body filler, buffing pads, compounds, polishes, glazes, and cleaners play an integral role in the quality of the restoration projects built by Airkooled Kustoms.
