

Mojo Global Launches Risk Free Trial For Automotive Lead Generation

November 16, 2016

November 16, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Mojo Global is proud to announce that they've launched a Complimentary Risk Free Trial of their Automotive Sales Lead Generation Sales System for auto dealerships. Mojo's auto lead generation risk free trial is designed to show car dealers how adding Mojo's proprietary All-in-One Multi-Channel System to their existing marketing and sales mix will positively impact the dealership's bottom line.

Recently, a Mercedes and BMW Dealership ran a 1-day campaign working with Mojo Global's Auto Sales Lead Generation System and achieved extraordinary results. Mojo's System generated 399 inbound phone calls of which 294 were unique (148 within 2 hours) resulting in $38,783 new sales closed.

Co-founder of Mojo Global, Cory Michael Sanchez, says: "The System reaches out to contacts from a dealership's database with Mojo's Personal, Unique, Multi-Touch Follow-Up Communication System. To earn a your business, we'll run a campaign for the dealership's first 500 contacts completely free."

Mojo's Lead Generation System has garnered consistent success stories across all their online channels. "Mojo Global has one of the best marketing platforms available, hands down," says Jeff S. on the company's

Facebook page. "The UI (user interface) is extremely intuitive and anyone can learn how to use the system within 15-20 minutes.... This allows staff members to spend more time marketing and sales and less time trying to learn a complicated system. If you're interested in wrapping up Q4 of 2016 strong and moving into 2017 with your head held high I would recommend doing one thing ... find your Mojo."

Mojo Global is a winner of the prestigious "Marketer of the Year Award" bestowed by the Phoenix Business Journal. For more information, to download case studies or to start a Free Trial please go to Mojo Automotive's website today.
