

Breast Augmentation Clinic In Honolulu Becomes Top Rated

December 08, 2016

December 08, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cosmetic surgery clinics now have to stand out from the crowd if they are to attract new patients. Honolulu Plastic Surgery Center, a clinic in Honolulu, HI, is proud to announce that in a recent consumer poll, they have been named as one of the providers of the best breast augmentation and liposuction Honolulu residents would be able to find.

Dr. Randolph K. Wong from Honolulu Plastic Surgery Center says: "I specialize in a number of cosmetic procedures. I am so proud to have been named as one of the best in the area. It is a testament to my own skills, but also to the fact that prospective patients now take the time to research their options and make a decision based on their personal interests. I must thank my patients for their continued support."

The clinic offers a variety of plastic surgery procedures. Originally started as a provider of tummy tuck Honolulu residents can depend on, Dr. Wong has always been committed to improving and expanding his own skills. Hence, the clinic has now been officially recognized as one of the best in plastic surgery in Honolulu. Aside from liposuction, patients can also opt for tummy tucks, facial rejuvenation, fat injections, breast augmentation, blepharoplasty, and advanced SkinCeuticals.

Those who have had procedures done by Dr. Wong have been very positive about their results, which is one of the reasons why the clinic has been recognized as one of the best. "My entire experience was wonderful," says Joan W. on the clinic's website. "Dr. Wong listened carefully to what my goals were, patiently answered many questions, was clear about the pros and cons of various options, and managed my expectations with a dose of realism. The surgery went smoothly, there was no pain, only some tenderness, and the recovery was quite easy. The outcome was excellent and I am very happy with the results. Maria was also wonderful, patient, supportive and very professional. Thank you Dr. Wong and Maria."

For those who are looking for reliable plastic surgeons Honolulu is a great place to be. This is particularly true for Dr. Wong's clinic. Those interested in cosmetic surgery are encouraged to contact the clinic as soon as possible.
