Hammer toes are painful conditions, and if left untreated, they can cause further toe problems, such as bunions and corns, as well. Once this happens, it is quite common for people to have significant issues with walking and putting pressure on their feet, thereby reducing their quality of life. DenadaDance, a company in Minden, NV, has recently released a hammer toe straightener, which has been designed to space the toes to correct certain issues, such as hammer toes. The spacer has proved to be a popular item, and is currently a 4.5 star rate item on Amazon.

"I myself have suffered from hammer toe for quite some time," says Elena Vera from DenadaDance. "I know exactly what it's like, therefore, not to be able to wear the shoes you like, not to be able to walk very far, and to always feel like you need to hide your feet from others. My own story was an inspiration for the development of our toe spacers, and I'm so happy to see that people are enjoying it."

The DenadaDance hammer toe straightener is made from a soft gel material that feels comfortable against the skin. The spacer is available as a set of four, with two large and two medium sized spacers. This means that they are suitable for any foot. The company is also so sure about the quality of their product that they have included a lifetime guarantee. To date, they have not had a single return.

"We have now had over 100 positive reviews in a relatively short period of time," adds Elena Vera. "The fact that we are able to provide relief to so many people is more than I could have asked for. It feels good to know that people's quality of life has been enhanced."

Thanks to the two sizes of spacers, they fit any size foot or toe. They also have a loop that fits over the toe, ensuring that the spacers stay firmly in place throughout the day. Made from a highly durable material, the spacers are designed to last a lifetime, which is why the lifetime guarantee is included.
