Minden, NV foot care company DenadaDance has announced that they have launched a new line of DenadaDance hallux valgus relief cushions, and they are already proving to be very popular. The company has noted that with winter nearly here, people have started to ditch the flip flops and slippers, and brought out the closed shoes. Unfortunately, this always brings about with it an increase in the number of people with various foot complaints, including bunions, corns, hammer toes, and hallux valgus.

Elena Vera from DenadaDance is quoted: "We are known for our high quality products to provide relief from common foot ailments. With people once again switching to closed shoes, we decided that the time was right for us to release a new line of hallux valgus relief cushions. We're very happy to see that your customers have found them to be beneficial."

The hallux valgus relief is a set of two gel toe spreaders and two gel bunion protectors or shields. These have been designed to help relieve the pains of toe drift, overlapping toes, and bunions. Thanks to the stretchy material, the spreaders and shields fit most feet.

The toe spreaders included with the package are designed to gently ensure the big toe and second toe are properly separated. If someone develops a bunion, it is because the big toe angles towards the second toe, pressing against it and constricting it. This can lead to other problems, including corns. Thanks to the spreaders, the toe will realign into a natural position, thereby slowing down and preventing the development of bunions.

Many customers have expressed their appreciation for the cushions. Pamela at Amazon says, "This does the job perfectly, they are very comfy and are easy to wash after use." Vera says, "I have used toe spacers for a few days and indeed the pain went away."

The soft gel bunion protector, meanwhile, has a double action. It works as a toe spreader, but it also provides the sensitive skin on the bunion with some protection and comfort. The company is so convinced that people can get hallux valgus relief from the set that they offer a lifetime guarantee on it.
