

8 Figure Dream Lifestyle Announces Release of New Marketing Funnel & Back Office

November 09, 2016

November 09, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

San Diego, California - 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle is the private label business launched by the top 3 sales earners from Tidom, Inc. These industry leaders were encouraged to launch 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle because of their extraordinary success with Tidom, and their interest in further customizing the experience to generate even more sales. They just released a brand new marketing system for 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle. This includes switching from a website to a front end marketing funnel, and the addition of an advanced back office portal.

The marketing funnel was designed to quickly and easily lead people through the simple three step process for making money with 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle. These steps are:

- 1) Whitelist emails from 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle
- 2) Register for and attend the free informative webinar
- 3) Schedule and attend a $10k call with an 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle coach

Marketing funnels take people through a specific process to reach a specific end result. This straightforward and intuitive approach makes them a superior alternative to a regular website for 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle. The back office provides a combination of services, including a training portal, CRM portal, events calendar, and an advanced system for tracking progression through the webinars, phone calls, and sales. Together these new and innovative developments will make it easier for even more people to change their lives with 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle's internet based, franchise-like, "business in a box" model.

8 Figure Dream Lifestyle's packages include training modules on lead generation, sales, personal growth, motivation, meditation, and internet marketing. The ability to generate executive level income is achieved by selling one of 5 available packages; multiple product packages allow members to purchase the one that best suits their needs. Popular options include an all-in-one marketing system that offers "done for you" resources.
