JGM Properties, a business in Bloomington, MN, is proud to announce that they have made a new Woodbury office space available for lease. Eli Russell from JGM Properties says: "We have a new office space available that will suit a number of types of businesses. It comes with one large office, perfect for the administration team, for instance, and three smaller offices for management or other teams. It also has a useful storage or IT closet, as well as a small galley style kitchenette with microwave nook next to the main entrance, just across from a space that would be perfectly suited for a reception area."

JGM Properties is a property management company that focuses on various elements of the commercial real estate market. This market is a complex one, with many pitfalls and complications that make it very different from residential properties. To assist people in making sure they get the most out of their lease or purchasing options, they have also revealed a number of tips to make the process easier. These are available through <http://finance.yahoo.com/news/jgm-properties-reveals-tips-leasing-180300163.html>.

Woodbury, Minnesota is a popular area for commercial real estate as it has experienced strong economic growth in recent years. JGM Properties has responded to this growth by making a wealth of properties available in a range of different zoning areas. Additionally, as can be seen on <http://www.jgmproperties.com/Woodbury,+Minnesota/Commercial+real+estate+for+lease.php3>, the company is committed to making sure people get the best deal out of their landlord if they decide to lease an office space property. "Get everything in writing pertaining to anything the landlord promises you and maintain digital and hard copies of everything," adds Eli Russell. "If the landlord says they will allow you to pay rent on the 15th of every month rather than the 1st, get it in writing."

JGM Properties encourages everyone to contact them to find their perfect commercial property, including those with questions on the available Woodbury office property for lease.
