May 22, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pittsford, NY: Pride Mark Homes and Morrell Builders announced their grand opening event on Saturday May 30th and Sunday May 31st from 12-3 pm. This will introduce Wilshire Hill Community, new homes for sale in Pittsford NY.

When asked, Jim Barbato, owner of Pride Mark Homes stated. All of us at Pride Mark Homes and Morrell Builders are very excited to announce our grand opening event at Wilshire Hill. We would like to invite the community to come and see our new professionally furnished model home and view our homes for sale in our new Pittsford community. We make the building process easy and seamless and customize each home to suit your individual lifestyle, you will be making all of your home living selections with The Inde Studio located on Route 96.

Wilshire Hill has two sections, the first section is Wilshire Hill North. These homes are built on larger lots and have more amenities. The homes are larger in size with a variety of styles including colonials, 1st floor master bedrooms, and classic capes.

Wilshire Hill South was created to serve the growing market of empty nesters. These homes are built on smaller lots with a private community setting. These homes will all be ranch style cottage homes.

Wilshire Hill will consist of 92 lots overall ? 45 traditional lots for colonial, ranch and cape style homes, and 47 smaller lots for the cottage style homes. The community has 75 acres with more than 50% open space, all of the open space will be dedicated to the town of Pittsford NY, and the town will maintain that space.

Pride Mark Homes and Morrell Builders have joined together in a partnership to develop Wilshire Hill in Pittsford NY. Both of these home builders have been building new homes in the Rochester NY area for decades, with a reputation of building quality new homes and creating beautiful new communities.
