Air Conditioning And Heating Company To Open New Showroom In Phoenix

December 07, 2016

December 07, 2016 -
Scottsdale Air Heating & Cooling, a top air conditioning and heating company serving the East Phoenix Arizona Valley, has announced that it will be opening a new company showroom, which will be located just south of the 44th Street and Camelback Road intersection. The new location will allow interested customers to meet the staff and learn all about the cutting edge air conditioning, heating and indoor air quality technology and products the company offers.

Owner Mike Cross from Scottsdale Air Heating & Cooling says: "We have operated in the Tempe, Scottsdale and Phoenix area since 1947. We felt it was time to open a place where customers will be able to discuss and interact with our experienced staff and be able to see first hand how advanced these pieces of equipment really are.?

The new showroom, nicknamed The Comfort Lab, is set to open in the spring of 2017. Current and future customers will be able to see firsthand what the terms home comfort and indoor air quality really means. The Phoenix air conditioning and heating company serves both domestic properties and small commercial properties. Scottsdale Air is a company that endears themselves so that their customers will feel confident in referring their friends and family.

One of the main reasons for the new showroom is to ensure customers can have face to face meetings with a HVAC professional. Additionally, it will give customers the opportunity to look at any rebates and specials that are being offered by Lennox, Trane, and Scottsdale Air. The most current specials and rebates can also be viewed on the company website at http://www.scottsdaleair.com/rebates-specials/. Customers can always be in the loop with specials by signing up for their newsletter on the website.

Scottsdale Air Heating & Cooling has been operating since 1947 and has built the reputation of delivering a genuine, heartfelt and caring experience for their customers. People who have worked with the company in the past have been very pleased with the service they have received. A review left by new customer Stan M. on Customer Lobby, "Since we moved from the Northeast to Arizona over 20 years ago, we have experience with three AC companies listed as tops for sales and service, and we found that Scottsdale Air beats them by over a mile when it came to a replacement of our two AC units, first in price and following with the service. Absolutely the best."
