November 17, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Floor Boys Hardwood Wholesale offers a range of flooring products to residents of the Lexington area. The professionals have a selection of flooring products which benefit contractors and do-it-yourselfers.

Lexington SC: Floor Boys Hardwood Wholesale is pleased to announce the launch of their new store located in Lexington, SC. For a full range of wholesale flooring, Lexington SC contractors and DIY fans are invited to browse the inventory online or locally. Whether the choice of product is hardwood, carpet, or other floor coverings, the same careful high-quality results are ensured. Customers of the store do their own measurements and installation of flooring products in order to ensure the most affordable results.

A spokesperson for the firm explained, "We are a distributor of any species of unfinished hardwood flooring, installation supplies, and high-quality floor finishes. We specialize in service to builders and hardwood flooring tradesmen. Our service is second to none, we have taken our business model from Floor Boys retail and emulated it as a wholesaler with superior service."

When it comes to the installation of carpet Columbia SC area residents recognize the financial significance of the investment. Quality products are necessary in order to ensure that the floor covering will be attractive and durable over many years. By browsing the options available online or at the new store location, contractors and do-it-yourselfers can pick the exact products that suit the personal preferences of the customers.

The Lexington carpet product choices are available in a wide range of colors, types, and designs. There is a broad range of carpeting from which to select. Contractors can find carpet choices which vary in colors, as well as in texture, loop and pattern. The textured options mean that the carpet doesn't appear perfectly smooth. The looped surface means the fibers are uncut. The pattern can also be created using cut fibers. Colors can be utilized to make the carpet even more varied. Browsing the informational content of the website provides even more helpful details about the product choices available from the new store location.
