November 29, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

People who need legal help often shy away from it because they do not know if they have a case to make and don't have the finances to pay for lawyers who may tell them in the end that they cannot take the case forward. Gross & Schuster P.A. of Milton, a personal injury law firm in Milton, FL, has announced that they now offer a completely free case evaluation. This ensures that people know exactly what to expect with regards to their case before they decide to go ahead. The Milton personal injury attorney has indicated that they are committed to ensuring that everyone can have the best legal representation, and this is one way in which they aim to achieve that.

Partner in the law firm, Terence Gross, says: "Everybody knows that legal help is expensive. However, people who have had personal injuries often aren't in a position to make any kind of financial commitment, not in the least because they are likely to have suffered some sort of loss of income. This is why we have launched our free case evaluation, so people can find out whether or not they can take legal action without having to pay anything yet."

The Milton lawyers have made the free case evaluation function available on their website. People can simply click on the banner, after which they can indicate some details about their case. After that, they will be able to know more about what their case may entail, and whether or not it would be a good idea to take the case further.

Those who have worked with Gross & Schuster P.A. in the past have been very pleased with the service they have received. "My husband William was in a wreck he was rear ended," says Beth L. on the firm's Facebook page. "Marcus and Rhett Gross went above and beyond to see that William was well taken care of. If you're ever in a wreck I recommend Gross and Schuster Attorney at Law."

People are encouraged to contact the Milton accident lawyer as soon as possible if they have sustained a personal injury.
