November 22, 2016; Boynton Beach, FL: Survivalist Magazine, the premier publication and most recognized name in the emergency preparedness community, proudly announces the release of a new guide book by renowned author Tristan Trubble titled Top Ten Crisis Concerns. As part of the company's ongoing efforts to reduce carbon footprints traditionally associated with the physical print industry, and to remain more environmentally conscious, this education rich resource is currently available on the Amazon Kindle store for immediate purchase and download. Customers may also order a physical print copy on demand through Amazon's Createspace company.

"We recently conducted a survey of survivalists across the spectrum," explains George Shepherd, CEO and founder of Survivalist Magazine, as well as the parent company CDI Publications. "We asked them what their Top 5 concerns were regarding what they were preparing for. We then correlated the responses to determine the Top 10 Crisis Concerns within the emergency preparedness community and assembled the corresponding content. This material is intended to share insight on what fears are foremost in the minds of those involved in prepping."

Previously published with flip book style formatting and offered digitally, this information and education resource is now available through Amazon Createspace, allowing customers to order a physical print copy on demand and consume the information in the style that serves them best. Author Tristan Trubble has assembled the content for Top Ten Crisis Concerns, and presented it in an easily understood and simple to follow format. Readers will discover what the biggest fears facing the community are, as well as why those fears are important considerations for the community.

While this book doesn't provide information on how to avoid getting caught up in a disaster because of one of these crises, it does inform the reader of what may be on the horizon, states George Shepherd. As far as survival is concerned, all we can do is try and be as prepared as possible for any one of these disasters to occur. Everybody lives in different regions, and has different ideas on how to prepare themselves and their families. Believe it or not, there are far more than 10 crises survivalists prepare for; these are just the most common ones we've found.

Survivalist magazine, one of the most respected leaders in the emergency preparedness and disaster survival industry, strives to maintain daily contact with their fans, followers, and members through a variety of online portals, such as webinars, podcasts, summits, workshops, articles, white papers, emails, DIY projects, survival guides and new blog posts on Steemit.
