One of the Top Employment Agencies in Anchorage Partners with Bean?s Café for Food Drive

November 23, 2016

November 23, 2016 -
Anchorage, AK ? Express Employment Professionals, one of the leading temp agencies in Anchorage,AK, has partnered with Bean?s Café for a local food drive in honor of Thanksgiving.

?We started this food drive at the beginning of the month and are really happy with how it?s going,? Recruiter Aron Nelson said. ?Our community is something we highly value, so we believe in helping out families and one another.?

Express has earned the respect of the community by contributing and giving back to local businesses and job seekers through its employment services in Anchorage, AK. In the spirit of Thanksgiving, there is no better way to help out than to provide full-course meals for needy children in the area.

Express has a list of foods that can be brought to their office including oatmeal, fruit snacks, pasta, crackers, macaroni and cheese, granola bars, Ziploc bags, and canned items. Not only do they want to see individuals meet their goals with jobs, but they also want to help children meet their goals in school by having access to quality meals in order to stay focused.

?We are thankful to be a part of a great community that comes together to give back,? Nelson said. ?We find it of the utmost importance to help find quality jobs for people and businesses in the area as well as giving back to our great community.?
