

Pay Per Call Advertising Agency Launches New Website

November 29, 2016

November 29, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Trinity Leads, an online marketing company in West Warwick, RI, has recently launched a brand new website, with a range of new service offerings as well. The company has been providing a pay per call marketing service for six years. The new website can be accessed at <https://trinityleads.com>.

Mark Casey, founder of Trinity Leads, says: "We class ourselves as customer acquisition masters. Just shy of a decade, we have been working with online and offline businesses to help them get more clients. We know what we do, we are good at what we do, and we can prove it to you. The new website further reflects the excellent work that we have been doing for so long."

One of the things that sets Trinity Leads Pay Per Call service apart is that they are performance based, which means they only charge their clients after they receive the promised leads. This means that they do not need to pay any money up front. Additionally, they do not require clients to sign up to long term service agreements.

Demand for professional lead generation agencies has been increasing over time and has recently gone through a huge boom. Through the Trinity Leads LinkedIn business page, people can access further information on the background of Mark Casey and the company's specialties.

Aside from the new website, the Trinity Leads Facebook page has also been launched. This page gives people the opportunity to get to know Mark and his company's work, and also to communicate directly with his staff members. Additionally, the page is used to share information on internet marketing and lead generation solutions, enabling others to gain a greater understanding of what can be done.

"Through Facebook, we really want to try to build a more personal relationship with our customers," adds Mark Casey. "We encourage everybody to like our page so that they can get involved in the conversation, ask questions and so on."

The new website has already gathered a lot of attention, as well as the Facebook page. The unique pay per call structure they offer is proving to be particularly popular and a smart investment for business owners looking to have their phone ring with new customers looking for their services.
