

Job Agency in Irving, TX Celebrates the Accomplishments of its Clients and Staff this Thanksgiving

November 23, 2016

November 23, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Irving, TX ? Express Employment Professionals, the leading provider of employment services in Irving, TX, is excited to give thanks to its employees and customers this holiday season. The opportunity to enjoy food, family, and fun is only moments away, so Express encourages all workers to take a day off and enjoy Thanksgiving.

?The time is here to celebrate with friends and families and reflect back on all the obstacles we?ve overcome as a community,? Express Employment Professionals owner Mike Overby said.

Customers have been so generous this year doing business with the employment agency and employees have worked extremely hard to ensure career goals are met. The Express team is grateful to be a part of such a flourishing community and wants to continue to provide quality services for years to come.

The labor force has done its part and should now be heading to the dinner table. For customers in need of career advice, they?ll have to wait until after Thanksgiving to consult with the staffing agency in Irving, TX.

The Express team will be far too busy indulging in the festivities.

?I am thankful for having the opportunity to work with such a professional and caring team of staff members,? Overby said. ?I am even more thankful for being able to help our clients accomplish their goals every day. Their success is our success.?
