Staffing Agency in Athens is Thankful for Employees and Clients

November 28, 2016

November 28, 2016 -
Athens, GA ? Express Employment Professionals, a prominent staffing agency in Athens, GA, showed appreciation to its staff members and clients yesterday with an "Express Thanks" social media campaign.

For Thanksgiving, most people consider spending time with loved ones and away from the office as a way to enjoy the holiday. It is a time to be spent away from daily labor work and sharing a moment eating delicious food. Express Employment Professionals in Athens, GA believes the holiday should be spent doing what you enjoy!

?I am thankful for my life, my family, and friends,? Express Athens owner John Culpepper said. ?I am also thankful for the growth of my companies and helping members of the community with staffing solutions.?

For the past few years, Express Athens and its qualified staffing consultants have continued to expand on the growing temp services in Athens, GA. As a company, Express primarily focuses on assisting clients with their employment goals while being innovative in the staffing industry.

?I am thankful for my family and friends and the ability to serve the Athens community every day,? Express Athens Branch Manager Heather Hayes said.
