Closet Organizers In Greenville SC Launch Second Location

December 02, 2016

December 02, 2016 -
Greenville, South Carolina based company ClosetPro has announced the opening of a second store location. The company is a distributor and installer of closet systems for residential and commercial use.

"We're pleased to announce our new location," says Jeff Ellis with ClosetPro. "We hope to be able to help twice as many clients now with their storage and organizational needs."

The locations as well as a specific list of the services that the company offers can be seen on the ClosetPro website. The company is a leader in the technology of designing and building closet systems for various kinds of needs. They have a partnership with 20/20 Design, which enables them to obtain detailed drawings and machining details, ensuring that customers receive high quality products at prices to meet a number of budgets.

"We truly have a system for everyone," says Ellis. "No matter what your storage needs are and no matter what your budget is, we can put together a customized closet system for you, and we guarantee that you'll be satisfied."

Those interested can learn more about the closet company on Yelp. They currently service upstate South Carolina, as well as western North Carolina. All closets provided and installed by ClosetPro are custom designed for each individual client, a fact that Ellis says is what has kept them in business and what has prompted the opening of their new location. The company states that they have a long list of satisfied clients behind them, and that they hope to add many more with their new store location.

ClosetPro is a family owned and operated business that has been serving customers in the closet and cabinet industries throughout South Carolina for more than 25 years. The company states that their reputation for custom, quality systems with 100 percent customer satisfaction has encouraged them to establish a new location, and that they hope to open additional store locations in the future.

Those interested in learning more about ClosetPro and their two locations, or any of the specific services and custom designs that they offer can visit them online or connect with them on their Facebook page.
