December 03, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

KINGSTON, JM ? Mona School of Business and Management (MSBM), located at the University of the West Indies, Mona, is now inviting suitably qualified candidates to apply for a number of post graduate degree programmes currently on offer for the academic year 2017/18.

Candidates who wish to apply can view the diverse list of post graduate courses on the school?s website including the internationally accredited Master in Business Administration (MBA).

Notably, the institution, which is ranked as the top business school in the Caribbean, has introduced five new MSc. programmes to its curriculum, which will begin in August 2017. These new programmes are MSc. in Services and Retail Management, MSc. in Logistics and Supply Chain Management, MSc. in Corporate Finance, MSc. in Procurement Management, and MSc. in Marketing and Data Analytics.

According to the Mona School of Business and Management, the new, in-demand programmes were developed as a result of its forward-thinking approach to delivering top-quality tertiary education, and through benchmarking exercises with top universities and consultation with business stakeholders. Aspiring students will have more choices for their educational paths with the addition of the new courses, as well as the opportunity to follow other career goals they might have been interested in but could not pursue until now.

MSBM has garnered a reputation of providing relevant and solution-oriented business education over the years. The School's performance in the tertiary education space was recently highlighted by way of Eduniversal Best Masters Ranking Awards for 2015/16, placing it among a number of top institutions globally for several of its post graduate programmes. Eduniversal is an international agency, based in Paris, France, that ranks institutions offering higher education.

With the application period now open, qualified candidates, including working professionals, can now submit their applications via the MSBM website. The application period will remain open until February 28, 2017.
