Skygold Financial Group (Skygold), based in Sunnyvale, California, is a financial consulting firm that aids small business owners and professionals in planning for their financial futures. The company's Andrej Kandus successfully completed the training and certification to earn the Certified Tax Coach (CTC) designation from the American Institute of Certified Tax Coaches and has recently satisfied the requirements set by the Institute to renew this certification.

The Certified Tax Coach designation involves advanced training in proactive tax planning strategies and teaches professionals including certified public accountants, enrolled agents, certified financial planners, attorneys, and financial professionals to provide ongoing, consultative and proactive tax planning.

Kandus, principal with the firm, is an acclaimed speaker at industry conferences and seminars and has been featured numerous times on financial radio programs. Kandus said of the CTC designation, "Our entire focus at Skygold Financial Group is to assist with all of your business planning needs, and this certification enhances our ability to live up to that promise. The company focuses on serving successful professionals and business owners by employing a complimentary approach that incorporates advanced tax saving strategies. The CTC designation is a helpful tool to keep abreast of material developments in tax planning services.

?The affiliated members of our advisory group, including a CPA and Attorney are well versed in helping business owners and professionals with an integrated approach to their planning needs. From asset protection and reducing income taxes to helping you to plan for retirement and transfer your wealth to the next generation. We can help,? says Kandus.

Skygold?s core mission is to help its clients plan for college education and retirement in a tax-considerate manner, the firm has been in the financial consulting business since 2012. More about the company can be seen at <http://www.skygoldfinancial.com>.
