January 06, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Mojo Global is a company based in Scottsdale, Arizona, that provides lead generation products for businesses. Co-founders Cory Michael Sanchez and Ira Rosen have announced an exceptional 5-Star Mojo Global Review that they recently received.

In the five star review, customer Steve A. says, "Mojo's support for me has been exemplary. I have purchased a lot of online marketing courses and a lot of software products, and while I still consider myself brand new with Mojo Global, I've got to say that these guys are super supportive."

The review goes on to state how the customer appreciates the fact that Mojo Global provides an actual phone number for customers to call when they need assistance, as well as email support. The customer adds that the entire office staff at Mojo Global have been helpful and provided insights and answers questions thoroughly to help customers better maximize the system.

"Look, anyone can sell you something, but when you come across a company that will stand by you after the purchase to see that you succeed, then you've found a winner," says Steve. "Keep up the amazing work and service you're doing."

The company offers a look at a number of other exceptional Mojo Global 5-star reviews on their website. Mojo Global has been recognized as Marketer of the Year by the Phoenix Business Journal and have become very well-known throughout the online marketing industry for their lead generation expertise, helping customers in more than 30 countries globally. The team offers experience in a number of marketing fields, to provide comprehensive assistance across the board.

The company was recently mentioned in an article citing that Mojo Global B2B marketing services increase B2B leads and revenue, and they have been praised for helping an auto dealership to nearly triple their profits in three days as a result of using their lead generation software.
