December 15, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Vancouver, Washington based Zombiedisasterkits.com provides a number of consumer products, especially for those who travel frequently, and its men's toiletry bag has become very popular on the Amazon marketplace among men and women alike. Jillian Gregg with the company has recently announced that the toiletry bag will be part of Amazon's Lightening Deals.

The Lightening Deal for the toiletry bag from ZombieDisasterKits is scheduled to be held on December 17, 2016, beginning at 4:15 p.m. PST. Jillian Gregg states that this is a good opportunity for everyone to grab that extra needed Christmas gift for someone special on their list.

"It's a great bag that allows you to perfectly organize your toiletries when traveling," says Gregg. "The bag makes packing a breeze and can be used for men or women's toiletries."

Jillian Gregg points out that the kit is rather large, with measurements of eleven by nine by three inches, and thus, it can hold full sized products with ease. The bag features three clear plastic compartments that are leak resistant and pack flat when the bag is not in use.

"The black leak resistant case sports a canvas finish and includes a hanger," says Gregg. "We designed the bag to make packing and keeping everything organized a breeze and the bag folds up when not in use so that it doesn't use any additional space."

Gregg states that the bag also contains two clear bags that easily pop out for carrying gels and liquids onto an airplane. The company has indicated that it can also be used to keep electronics, cables, or other power adapters packed and organized, and it includes three food safe silicone bottles to easily transport gels and liquids. The company says that all of their products are backed by a money back satisfaction guarantee.

Those who are interested in learning more about the TSA friendly bag and the Lightning Deal that it will be part of can read about the product on Amazon or visit Zombie Disaster Kits on their official website to learn about this and the various other products that the company provides.
