December 16, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Baubelle, a jewelry designer in Cheyenne, WY, has completed a poll among their customers to determine which of their products are the most popular gift this holiday season. An overwhelming majority of people chose the Be Thankful bracelet, although many people also felt that a combination of bracelets from the entire collection made for a perfect gift. The company is happy to see that their bracelets are so popular.

"What I originally set out to do was create something that would be accessible to everybody due to an affordable price tag, but of a quality that is more commonly seen in fine jewelry," says company founder and owner Sarah Evren. "The popularity of the bracelets quickly became bigger than I had anticipated, so I decided to determine which products people liked the most. I'm so happy to see that the Be Thankful bracelet was the overall winner."

The Baubelle 'Be' line of bracelets also includes Be Brave, Be Happy, Be Kind, Be True, and Be Strong. Each of the bracelets is plated in 18k yellow, white, or rose gold. This means that they will not tarnish nor rust. Additionally, it is a hypoallergenic plating, which means it is perfect for those who suffer from metal allergies, causing no irritation, itchiness, or skin discoloration.

Finding out that the Be Thankful bracelet was added to so many people's holiday gift list is something that Evren is particularly happy with. "I wanted my bracelets to be inspirational and to remind people to be a good person. The Be line is very clear in that, and my other collections include inspirational quotes to remind women that they are strong and resilient. I am following my own advice right now and must therefore say I am so thankful that people are enjoying my collections."

The Be range of stackable, adjustable fashion bracelets is currently available on Amazon.com, where they have received numerous positive reviews. All of the Baubelle products are of the same, high quality, hypoallergenic construction. Each bracelet is sent out in a signature gift box, and comes with a one year 100% money back guarantee, no questions asked.
