Baubelle Launches New Year New Me Range of Bracelets

December 28, 2016

December 28, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

A jewelry design company in Cheyenne, WY, has announced that they have released their full collection of New Year New Me bracelets on Amazon. These bracelets come in three different styles, which include the "She Believed" and "Love the Life" bracelets, as well as the "Be" collection. Each of these bracelets has been designed to provide women with daily inspiration and motivation for the New Year.

Company spokesperson Sarah Evren says: "For many people, 2016 has been a horrendous year. Some of the world's greatest celebrities have died, and there has been political, economic, and social unrest all over the planet. We felt it was time for some motivation, to show women that they can be the change they want to see. Our full bracelet collection is now available on Amazon to help them achieve this."

The Baubelle collection for the New Year New Me bracelets includes the three different styles of bracelets. All of these bracelets are 18k gold plated (yellow, rose, or white), and of such quality that they will not tarnish nor rust. Furthermore, they are hypoallergenic, which means even those women with skin sensitivities or metal allergies can wear them. Finally, they have created pieces that are fine jewelry quality, but at an affordable price tag. As an added benefit to the peace of mind of consumers, Baubelle offers a 100% money back guarantee, no questions asked, for a full year, to anyone who has purchased or received this bracelet through Amazon.

"We have created a fashion bracelet that is of the greatest possible quality, but in an affordable way," adds Sarah Evren. "We stand by this quality, which is why we confidently offer our clients such a long warranty period. To date, nobody has had to take us up on it."

Baubelle has released all of their products on Amazon.com, where they have gained tremendously in popularity, and quite rapidly so. It seems women all over the world are looking for a little bit of inspiration to take with them as they navigate through the significant struggles of daily life, providing them with the motivation they need.
