Bianca Ferosi is a truly inspiration woman with beauty on the inside and outside. She has made it her life's mission to find skin products that actually work and she is proud to announce that she her previously sold out cellulite removal cream is once again back in stock on Amazon. After years of testing and searching, she believes that this is one of the few cellulite removal creams that work available on the market today.

The product is very easy to use and does not require any massagers or scrubbers. It should simply be applied to affected areas by hand twice a day. It will help firm and shape the thighs, hips, buttocks and other problem areas. While these are big claims to make, it seems that those who have tried the product are impressed with the results.

"I ordered this for my wife and she was delighted", says one happy customer. "It was the first cellulite cream she's used that actually worked and without any allergic reaction. It contains lots of organic ingredients too. A wonderful mild scent. She is already half way through the first bottle and has asked me to reorder."

Cellulite is a very common condition. It usually develops during pregnancy, although it doesn't become noticeable until slightly later on in life. There are three grades of cellulite, with the first one being visible under a microscope only. At Grade 2, people are starting to show signs of cellulite, including pasty skin and coolness of the area, but not actual cellulite is visible with the naked eye. Grade 3 cellulite is what is commonly referred to as "orange peel skin", leaving the skin to look lumpy and dimply.

Many believe that there is very little that can be done about cellulite. As it is as subcutaneous (underneath the skin) condition, there is very little a topical product can do. Bianca Ferosi disagrees. She believes that the action of massing a product into the skin, blood flow to the tissue is improved, which helps reduce the appearance of cellulite. Additionally, the ingredients contained in her product help to improve the skin's elasticity and natural youthful appearance, thereby further reducing cellulite. And, it seems, her customers agree with her.

"I have used several different cellulite creams over the years, this is the only one that has worked", says another happy customer. "I have been using it less than a week and already see results. It works GREAT!"

Ferosi has made it her mission to ensure everybody can achieve skin perfection. Her cellulite removal cream is just one of her products designed to make this dream a reality. She is so confident about the quality of her products that she offers a full 90 day, no questions asked, money back guarantee. However, to date, she has never had to make good on this guarantee as people love her products. For further details, see below in the about section.
