December 09, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

San Diego, California, December 9th, 2016 - Private label brand 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle, launched just months ago by 3 top earners, has made new and improved Daily Success Calls available to their members. Each call is now being taught by top VIP leaders on the team, all of whom are currently generating at least $30k/month. The leaders spend 30 minutes each day sharing their best strategies for success, such as positive mindset tips, effective communication tactics, and what they have personally found to be effective for generating prosperity.

8 Figure Dream Lifestyle reviews on the new program show members responding with "Tremendous positive feedback", says VIP leader Aniko Giampietro. She also notes that, "To be able to receive mentorship, coaching, and motivation from those in our system is priceless!" Giampietro and other VIP leaders urge members to participate in the calls, take the knowledge available, and apply it to their own business, so they can achieve the same success. This spirit of community and sharing is a crucial part of the 8 Figure Dream Lifestyle brand and structure.

8 Figure Dream Lifestyle Explained: This is an internet based, franchise like, "business in a box" model.

Members receive access to extensive digital resources as well as one-on-one coaching and community support. Training modules and materials focus on personal development, web traffic, lead generation, sales, internet marketing, and the law of attraction.
