Medicare For Her Discusses Medicare Supplement Plans In NC

December 19, 2016

December 19, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Medicare for Her, a company in Cornelius, NC, is proud to announce the release of the latest episode of their online show. The episode, "Medicare Supplement Plans in NC North Carolina: What You Need To Know", discusses important information on what supplemental plans are available for North Carolina residents who are currently on Medicare. The episode can be accessed at <https://youtu.be/PX7xjE6k5IQ>.

Tripp Jordan from Medicare for Her says: "A Medicare Supplement is private health insurance from individual carriers that is designed to cover things like co-insurance, deductibles and co-payments that original Medicare does not pay. So basically what a Supplement does is that it fills in the gaps that original Medicare unfortunately leaves open."

Medicare for Her is an organization that aims to empower mature women to make the best decisions when it comes to their Medicare. The latest episode of their show proved to be so popular that the company has also released more detailed information about Medicare Supplement on their website at <http://www.medicareforher.com/what-is-a-medicare-supplement/> in an effort to provide further clarity on what supplement plans are, why they matter, and whether or not someone needs one.

On the show, Tripp Jordan answers a number of pertinent questions posed by mature women across the country. Jordan also explains that Medicare Supplements and Medigap are one and the same thing, which is something that has confused many people for a long time. Women are offered to sign up to Medigap when they turn 65, with the alternative being for them to enroll in a Medicare Advantage.

People who have viewed the latest episode are encouraged to sign up to the "What women need to know about Medicare" workshop that Tripp Jordan hosts, to educate themselves on the specific benefits that a supplement plan can provide them with.

As shown on the company's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/medicareforher>, Jordan's goal is to make sure all mature women are able to get the most out of their medical insurance. Since the implementation of the Affordable Care Act, people have found that their insurance coverage is more complicated than ever, and the information provided by Medicare for Her is therefore of particular importance. Women are encouraged to like the Facebook page and get involved in the conversation.
