Medicare for Her is an organization that aims to provide mature women with advice, information, and guidance on their medicare benefits, providing them with a place to learn, laugh, feel connected and empowered with the wisdom they need to make the smartest decisions possible on their Medicare journey. The company, which is based in Cornelius, NC, regularly releases episodes in an online show, where they address questions posed by women about Medicare. They have now announced that they have released their new episode, "Medicare Office in Raleigh and Charlotte NC... How Do I Find?", which can be viewed at <https://youtu.be/Fb2uivjXDXo>.

Tripp Jordan from Medicare for Her says: "A lot of people are looking for a Medicare office in Raleigh and Charlotte, NC. Unfortunately, there are none. Rather, there are social security offices to go to instead. Exact address details about these offices can be accessed through the social security website, and I encourage everyone to find out the address of their nearest location."

Finding a local Medicare office is important to many people, but especially if they have lost or never received their Medicare red, white, and blue card. Medicare services are managed by the Social Security Administration. Those who do need to contact them have three options available, which are to go online, to telephone the toll-free or nearest Social Security office, or to visit the office in person. However, the latter option is often a very time consuming one, which is why Tripp Jordan recommends opting for the other two, and for going online in particular.

Jordan adds: "Anyone who wants to actually visit a representative in person should make an appointment. Waiting times are long and comparable to what would be experienced at the DMV." Further information on how to find a local Medicare/Social Security Administration offices can be found on the company's website at <http://www.medicareforher.com/local-medicare-office/>.

Medicare for Her is also very active on social media, not in the least Facebook. They encourage everyone to like their page at <https://www.facebook.com/medicareforher> so that they can become involved in ongoing conversations, ask questions, or generally be informed.
