December 13, 2016

December 13, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

REXBURG, ID ? As baby boomers continue to age the demand for affordable senior housing has gone up. Carlow Senior Apartments has stepped up to meet the need for conveniently located and affordable apartments within the Rexburg community.

The complex provides one and two bedroom apartments for rent at an affordable rate for seniors aged 55 and older. Carlow is currently offering one month of free rent for a 1 bedroom senior apartment for anyone who signs a lease by December 31, 2016.

A 2014 study conducted by the Harvard Joint Center for Housing Studies and the AARP Foundation found that by 2030 there will be 133 million Americans over the age of 50. This boom in senior residents means that access to affordable senior housing is essential. Communities like Carlow Senior Apartments provide a convenient lifestyle for seniors living on a limited income.

Built by Pacific West Communities, Carlow gives seniors the ability to live independently within their community without having to worry about home maintenance.

Carlow Senior Apartments not only offers affordable apartments, but they offer an entire lifestyle and community for their tenants. The community room offers a space for residents to gather together, along with other amenities including a computer center, library, reading lounge, fitness center, raised garden beds and a dog area. The apartment complex is close to a variety of stores, restaurants and medical care, making it a convenient location for seniors who want to live close to everything that they need.

Marva is one of the residents at Carlow Senior Apartments. She came to Carlow looking for an affordable senior apartment for rent. There are many things that she enjoys about living at Carlow.

"It's comfortable," Marva said. "I'm close to so many things, like doctors. And all of my medications are taken care of. The people are just wonderful."

She appreciates the maintenance-free living at Carlow, where her apartment is outfitted with energy efficient appliances, including her own in unit washer and dryer. Marva also enjoys the sense of community at the complex. It's close to her church and provides easy access to the amenities she needs. As for the apartment itself, Marva is extremely happy with its size and the fact that it offers everything she needs.

"It's a nice two-bedroom and it's very spacious. I have more room," Marva said. "And I'm still close to my family."

Those who apply by December 31st, 2016 can receive their first month's rent free.
