December 15, 2016 -
A Reno, Nevada based skin care company, Cardea Luxe, has released a video on YouTube that focuses on the company's Radiance eye cream. The video outlines the benefits of the cream and states why it is a good holiday gift for women of all ages.

"This is for those who are looking for the perfect holiday gift for the most important woman in their life," says Joseph Meli with Cardea Luxe. "This video will tell you why our Radiance eye cream is the perfect gift, a gift so wonderful that she'll be thanking you until next Christmas."

Meli states that the eye cream is the perfect gift choice because it is suitable for all women. The humectant rich nutrients in the cream have been found to help to minimizing fine lines, crow's feet, bags under the eyes, and general puffiness. In addition, the cream contains no alcohol, sulfates, or parabens, so it is safe for all skin types.

"Our Radiance Eye Renewal Therapy Cream is a hot seller," says Meli. "It's a hot seller because it works, it's great for women of all ages, and it won't aggravate or irritate the skin, so any woman can use it."

The company states that the cream is all natural and organic and uses Matrixyl 3000, retinol and hyaluronic acid for a more effective eye treatment than most other products on the market. Meli states that it not only makes a great gift for women, but men can use it as well for elimination of dark under eye circles and loss of tone under the eyes. He says that the cream can also be dabbed on the neck for effective reduction of skin aging signs.

The company offers an in-depth overview of the eye cream, as well as directions for use on their official website. Meli states that those purchasing the eye cream as a holiday gift for her can get more information on the site before buying, including the complete list of ingredients and its effects on skin aging that it offers for men and women alike. Those interested in learning more can do so on the official site for Cardea Luxe or watch the new video on YouTube.
