"While this is my first purchase of herb scissors, I've spent well over $50 on household scissors and $100 on a single pair of kitchen shears that were never this sharp, let alone having 5 blades," said CO Girl, a top 1000 reviewer on Amazon herb scissors.

This is just one of hundreds of reviews that have highlighted the 5-blade herb scissors' usefulness and value for money.

"I use these scissors to shred papers and they are great for that. No more private information available in my trash. I have another pair for the kitchen. I like how you can get a quick, evenly cut pile of herbs," adds E.J.,

another verified Amazon reviewer.

Many other reviews express similar sentiments, including the herb scissors' ability to cut herbs quickly. Its five blades can provide the equivalent of 10 knife chops in two snips. It also results in perfectly-sized cuts and can be used to create salads and garnishes, as well as to prepare leafy vegetables and to slice lean meat.

The product also comes with a special protective cover to shield the blades, when not in use, and acts as a blade cleaner to remove bits of herbs from between the blades.
