Pasadena, California based company, SF Group, has recently launched a new product onto the Amazon marketplace. The company's Yoga Massage Ball is currently available through the marketplace.

Vincent Nell with SF Group says, "Muscle tension could be one of the reasons why people couldn't reach 100% fit condition. Our massage ball is recommended to do self-massage to relieve muscle tension."

The product, which can be seen at <http://amzn.to/2kbAVVY>, is made of solid rubber which makes it durable according to Vincent Nell. He states that the massage ball provides targeted self-massage focused movement routines which help penetrate through layers of skin and muscle.

"People who love yoga are going to find that this massage ball is a good way to loosen up the tight muscles," says Vincent Nell. "You can use it to do self-massage anytime you want. If you want to eliminate tension or muscle knots, you will need a soft and elastic massage ball that will help you relax your muscles."

Vincent Nell states that the massage ball can give instant assistance when doing self-massage through its solid firm and smooth material.

SF Group designed the massage ball to be a compact massage tool which can hold the toughest pressure. The company states that their new product can be brought and used anytime and anywhere because it has a small size. More can be seen on the company's Amazon seller's page.
