December 19, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Healing Touch Certified Practitioner (HTCP) Anne Logue shows people how to resolve conflict and difficulties in life, whether the struggle is with challenges in relationships, career or health.

Logue will be in Boulder, Colo., in mid-February to conduct private sessions and participate in a "pinning ceremony" after receiving the HTCP from Healing Touch. She recently spoke at the Harvard Faculty Club with other self-empowerment professionals and has appeared at several healing fairs. She has certifications in both Hypnosis and Neuro Linguistic Programming, is a Reiki Master and has been trained in Quantum Touch.

"As with any change that we undergo, if the person is interested in creating more positive patterns, the potential is almost unlimited," said Logue. "There are often levels of resistance to unraveling what has become familiar and comfortable. Solving it can lead to significant positive results, including stronger confidence, determination and resolve."

She works with clients who have had difficulties in careers, health and trauma, from childhood issues, parental issues, relationship conflicts and others.

Logue?s works with ?Mind Movies,? a form of visualization and has an upcoming book titled ?See You on the Other Side,? which chronicles her experiences with her brother that led her to becoming interested in this work.
