

Lead Attorney At Loftus Law Earns Highest AV Rating For 20 Years

December 21, 2016

December 21, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Leslie Wulfsohn Loftus offers more than thirty years of experience in the practice of law, along with the recognition of judges and peers for over twenty years. She has the highest "AV" rating as well as other recognition awards.

Sarasota FL: Loftus Law and lead attorney Leslie Wulfsohn Loftus, Esq are pleased to announce that they are recognized by several organizations and groups for their service to clients and to the community. Located in Sarasota, Florida, the lawyers at Loftus Law represent clients in all types of family law and divorce matters. These include obtaining collaborative or mediated settlements, child custody and time sharing issues and modification of child support or alimony. The legal team asserts fathers' rights.

The divorce attorney Sarasota legal team can draft and review pre and post-nuptial agreements. They also prosecute and defend claims of domestic violence or other abuse. Lead attorney Leslie Loftus is well-established in Sarasota. She has been practicing law for more than three decades and has had the highest "AV" rating from her peers and judges for more than twenty years.

A spokesperson for the law practice explains, "When facing divorce or other family law issues, many people feel powerless. The skills and experience of the knowledgeable family law attorney who knows the court system assist in explaining the process and works with you to obtain the results you want. Every case is unique and works closely with clients. Our clients find that we are easily accessible to answer questions promptly."

In addition to the AV VO rating of 10, the attorney is a Florida Bar Foundation Fellow. She was listed as one of the 10 Best Client Satisfaction Finalists for 2016, named by the American Institute of Family Law Attorneys.

The areas of practice include divorce, child custody, modification of alimony and relocation. Clients are guided through the emotional, legal and financial aspects of divorce while staying attentive to the need to resolve the dispute quickly and easily. The clients' needs are protected throughout the legal process. Divorce decree terms are binding, but are not permanent. Changing events can transpire and cause the divorce terms to need modification to restore fairness.

To learn more please visit the website at <https://loftuslaw.net>.

###

For more information about Loftus Law, contact the company here:Loftus LawLeslie Wulfsohn Loftus, Esq(941) 444-7278leslie@loftuslaw.com783 South Orange Avenue, Suite 300, Sarasota, FL 34236

Loftus Law

Website: <https://loftuslaw.net>

Email: leslie@loftuslaw.com

Phone: (941) 444-7278

Powered by PressAdvantage.com