Staffing Agency in Athens, GA Sponsors Multiple Charities this Holiday Season

December 27, 2016

December 27, 2016 -
Athens, Ga. ? Express Employment Professionals, a top job agency in Athens, GA, has decided to sponsor two charities this holiday season. The Express team is overjoyed to work with the Clarke County Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS) and 104.7 The Fish to spread holiday cheer.

?This will really give us an opportunity to help even more people in the community, especially during a financially stressful time like the holiday season,? Express Athens owner John Culpepper said.

The holiday season is a time for family and friends to gather around warm fireplaces, tell Christmas stories, and exchange heartfelt gifts. This year, Express felt it necessary to join in on the gift giving by collaborating with a few of the most beloved charities in the city.

An interesting charity opportunity the temp agency in Athens, GA has agreed to sponsor is the Clarke County DFCS. Express understands that some of the families the DFCS services are in dire need of support for the holiday season, especially when it comes to buying presents. So the team plans to pick a gracious family with two to three older foster children and purchase meaningful gifts for them.

The Express team will also be sponsoring Atlanta radio station 104.7 The Fish. Express will visit the local Chic-fil-A on Tuesday, Dec. 20 from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., where the radio station will be hosting its #FishChristmasWish live broadcast. Using the Fish Christmas Wish List, Express will happily select a wish or two to grant to a deserving family.

?We are just so proud to be a part of such an involved community and work with organizations that actually take the necessary steps to ensure others have a merry Christmas,? Culpepper said.
