Brighton, MI based Pinnacle Tax Advisory has announced the addition of Tim Wessel as Director of Business and Tax Consulting. The tax consulting firm states that Wessel will focus on helping business owners not just in reducing excessive taxation, but also in seeking a more balanced life in family, faith, and business.

"We are very excited to welcome our new team leader to our Brighton Office, in the person of Tim Wessel. Tim, who is a CPA and an Ordained Pastor, comes to Pinnacle Tax Advisory with an extensive academic background including over 10 years of formal education in Business, Accounting, Information Systems and Leadership," says Andrew Perri, CEO of Pinnacle Wealth Management and Pinnacle Tax Advisory.

Perri points out that Wessel brings with him a vast knowledge about small business owners and the unique challenges that they face. Wessel has more than 11 years of experience as a CPA with UHY Advisors, LLC, which is a large regional public accounting firm. In his role at UHY, he provided audit, tax and specialized consulting services for businesses in the Southeast Michigan region.

Wessel also brings with him the experience that he gained during the last 12 years of his life as a Senior Leader. He artfully built and equipped teams and individuals, developing and implementing successful, reproducible, measurable models for ministries within a very successful and fast growing Church at Brighton Nazarene Church. At the church included many hours of life coaching and leadership development both inside and outside the church. He specializes in taking people from the bottom to the top of whatever challenges they may face.

He is heavily involved in the community and serves in an advisory capacity to many of the community non-profits. His life has included some incredible adversity that has forced him to develop inspirational skill sets with which he loves to empower others. He has overcome incredible odds to achieve success at the highest level both professionally and personally. His life story has been told through a DVD which has been distributed all over the world to bring inspiration and hope for those who watch it. Wessel is a sought after public speaker and has provided thousands of communications from the board room to the auditorium.

Tim and his wife Gina own and operate Thrive Coaching and Consulting, whose mission is "Moving Organizations and Individuals from Surviving to Thriving with Passion and Purpose." They provide leadership and strategic vision for those they serve they are clear in their overarching values that everything is "Built on Faith and Family Values". Tim will provide value added coaching and consulting services to the Pinnacle families as well as the community at large.

"I am excited and optimistic to have Tim at Pinnacle Wealth Management," says Perri. "I've known Tim for about 18 years and he is a passionate leader who brings a lot of heart and devotion to everything he does. The value added services he brings directly align with the culture and focus that we are building here at the Pinnacle Group of Companies; an entrepreneurial spirit coupled with financial expertise with a big picture outcome in mind. Combine this with his incessant drive to network and connect people and Tim brings a unique capability to grow."

"I am convinced that PWM is going to leave a lasting legacy, both for its clients and its community," says Wessel. His mission is to move people from surviving to thriving.
