Wm. Keith Dozier has received notice of his election to the American Board of Trial Advocates and also to the Oregon State Bar's House of Delegates. The election follows selection to the "Top 50" Oregon Super Lawyers.

Lake Oswego OR: Keith Dozier of Wm. Keith Dozier, LLC is pleased to announce that the Lake Oswego lawyer has been elected to the American Board of Trial Advocates, as well as to the Oregon State Bar's House of Delegates. The honor reflects his experience and knowledge as a practicing attorney in the area of personal injury. The legal practice represents clients from throughout Oregon who have suffered serious injury because of the negligence of another, or their intent to cause harm. The legal team limits cases to honest individuals who need help.

According to Keith Dozier, "We offer a free confidential consultation to anyone needing legal representation regarding a personal injury or discrimination claim. We will be honest in our assessment of your case, help explain the legal process to you, answer any questions you may have, and give sound legal advice. We work on a contingency fee basis and do not charge hourly fees, meaning we only get paid if we are successful in helping our clients. As such, we only accept cases that have merit and allow us to make a difference in someone's life."

The personal injury attorney Portland Oregon professional was also selected to the "Top 50" in Oregon Super Lawyers and selected to Best Lawyers for the Pacific Northwest for personal injury law. The professionalism of the legal team enables them to work hard to obtain insurance coverage for clients so they can get proper medical treatment, make up for lost wages and put their lives back together as much as possible.

Keith has taken personal injury cases to a successful verdict in state and federal courts. He has also been recognized by former clients and fellow Oregon lawyers for his record of providing ethical and effective representation. The independent rating service Avvo.com rates him as 10.0 Superb and Martindale-Hubbell gives him "AV Preeminent", the highest rating for ethical conduct and legal skill.
