December 28, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Timothy J Ryan & Associates offers an updated website design to represent their full range of legal services. The team of attorneys are excited to release this new version, which boost a more user-friendly experience with improved functionality throughout the site.

Huntington Beach CA: Timothy J. Ryan & Associates are pleased to announce the upcoming release of their new and updated website. The website release provides an extensive range of resources and guidance for those in need of help after being injured in an accident. The Huntington Beach personal injury lawyers at Timothy J. Ryan couldn't be happier with the sites new experience that they are now providing to injury accident victims.

The new website means that users can now benefit from richer content, which has been a result of talking with a number of website visitors and gaining valuable feedback. From a design perspective, the clean uncluttered experience is not only more inviting to users but also makes it easy for those who may have been involved in a car accident, dog bite incident, slip and fall or other accident to find essential information quickly.

From a digital standpoint, this marks a big accomplishment for the firm, who works closely with JBP Inc. to stay on the cutting edge of online technology. Ensuring each client receives the best client care is a top priority. No detail is too small when it comes to helping accident victims. And that is no surprise when you look back at the firm's impressive track record.

The Orange County lawyers at Timothy J Ryan & Associates have been helping victims of serious injuries for more than three decades. The professional team brings knowledge experience and best client care to the many clients who have chosen the expertise of the legal team. More than $1 billion in compensation has been obtained for victims and their families.

The new website breaks down complex legal processes into easy to understand steps that should be taken by victims of accidents. These steps are required in order to ensure that the victims receive the maximum amount of compensation.

A spokesperson for the firm explained, "We are very pleased to be releasing our new website design and feel that accident victims will appreciate the time and effort we have spent ensuring that every detail of our site addresses the needs of an injured victim. Providing a positive user experience, as well as the best client care, is an important part of our business. Our clients include Huntington Beach locals, as well as Orange County and other California victims who we look to help."

When it comes to a personal injury accident, each type of case has its own unique characteristics and intricacies. The experience gained by the legal team over the years has enabled them to provide the best and most responsive service to each client. The legal professionals bring their knowledge of the law to cases involving 18-wheelers and bicycles; construction accidents and burns, bus accidents, drug injuries, as well as other types of injuries.

Timothy J. Ryan & Associates aggressively protects the right of victims suffering from personal injuries. The legal firm works exclusively with victims of car accidents, dog bites, vehicle roll-overs, product liability, catastrophic injury, brain injuries, premises liability, wrongful death and other injuries. A free consultation about the case is encouraged in order to get the process started.
