December 28, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Covington, Ga. ? Express Employment Professionals, a leading staffing agency in Covington, GA, sponsored multiple charities for the holiday season. Express divvied out the Christmas happiness by collaborating with the Clark County Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS) and 104.7 The Fish.

The holidays are a time for friends and family to amass around cozy fires, tell tales of Christmas folly, and exchange meaningful presents. Express felt it essential this year to participate in the fellowship by teaming up with some of the most cherished charities in Covington.

?We are beyond thrilled to work with these charity opportunities and to do much more than we can in our own office,? Franchise Owner John Culpepper said.

The initial charity opportunity the temp agency in Covington, GA, sponsored was the Clarke County DFCS. Express recognized that several of the families the DFCS works with were in high demand of assistance for the holidays, specifically when it pertained to purchasing gifts. So the team selected a family with at least two to three older foster kids and bought thoughtful presents for them.

Additionally, Express sponsored prominent Atlanta radio station 104.7 The Fish for the #FishChristmasWish live broadcast. The Express team visited a local Chick-fil-A where the event was held on Tuesday, Dec. 20 from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., and chose a wish or two from the Fish Christmas Wish List granted to a deserving family.

"This will definitely be one of the highlights of the holiday season," Culpepper said. "We're just really looking forward to seeing the smiles on the faces of the families."
