Spartan Coins Offers Custom Coin Dies

December 29, 2016

December 29, 2016 -
Peoria-based Spartan Coins offers a wide range of custom coins to serve as promotional or recognition products. Through the first quarter of 2017, the firm is giving away free custom coin dies to create Seabee coins or USAF anniversary coins.

Peoria AZ: Spartan Coins and Robert D. Blackburn are pleased to announce that they are honoring the 2017 milestone anniversaries of the United States Navy Seabees and the United States Air Force. The 75th anniversary of the United States Navy Seabees and the 70th anniversary of the United States Air Force is happening in 2017. Spartan will be giving away free custom coin dies, also known as molds, to those who wish to create either of the anniversary coins. Customers can choose from either of these molds or can look through the options available for custom coin or promotional products.

According Robert Blackburn, ?We are the best name in custom coins. We proudly manufacture quality custom designed coins as well as other custom metal promotional products. This industry leading special offer is scheduled through the first quarter of 2017. It will, of course, carry certain minimum requirements such as a minimum order quantity of 125 pieces.?

The company provides coin minting services which includes free artwork and design. The orders are shipped free by air and satisfaction is 100 percent guaranteed. The website includes an easy quote form which has only a couple of questions. The artwork is uploaded and the representative will get back to the customer with a price quote. Customers may also send artwork by email if it is easier.

Spartan has a broad selection of standard coins from which to choose, in addition to the custom offerings. Some of the coin offerings include police and military coins. The coins are either die cast or die struck. There are variations by weight, color and the type of background which is presented in the coin. Various metals are utilized in creating the coin so that it has the feel of a real coin. The custom coins can be plated or enameled to have the look and feel desired by the customer.
