January 05, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Salem, Ore. ? As a successful staffing agency in Salem, OR, Express Employment Professionals is proud to have created multiple job opportunities for the Salem community for the holidays.

Christmas, being the time of year for gifts and quality time spent with families, Express understands the demands of the holidays. Their team has worked extremely hard to ensure that every client that walks through our doors had an employment opportunity available for them.

Express Salem Franchisee Patricia Callihan-Bowman said, ?The holidays are a stressful time for most families and our team is proud to have helped relieve that stress by providing a way to pick up an extra job to provide for your family.?

Express helps local job seekers find employment opportunities and also assist employers in finding qualified candidates for their companies. They understand the importance of finding a career path that you enjoy. As a result, our employment agency in Salem, OR wants to put you to work in a job that you will appreciate for the rest of the holiday.

?Our goal this season was to provide job opportunities in the Salem community and we are proud to say we have accomplished this goal and are striving for continued success for 2017,? Callihan-Bowman said.
