

Transtar Moving Celebrates Three decades of Award-Winning Service

January 09, 2017

January 09, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Since 1985, Transtar has been racking up awards and recognition by peers and customers. The family owned business was established in 1962 as Cherry Hill Moving and Storage.

Moorestown NJ: Transtar Moving and Wayne Labascio are pleased to announce that the firm has reached a 4.9 ranking on Google, as well as being named as 2015 Arpin Agent of the Year. From its beginnings as a local moving firm in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware, the company has met the need for a reliable local storage, moving and relocation service. As it grew and expanded, the operations included inter-state, long-distance and international moves. The name was changed from Cherry Hill Moving & Storage to Transtar in order to better reflect the global reach of the service.

Since 1985, the moving company in Marlton, NJ has been part of Arpin Van Lines, a premier name among the top ten van lines in the country. During the years of association with Arpin, Transtar has won a number of service and sales awards, including the honor of being awarded the #1 residential moving agent throughout the country. Transtar, as well as Arpin Van Lines Nationwide agent network, provides complete relocation and related services.

According to Wayne Labascio, speaking to an interviewer, "We professionally perform a full variety of local or long-distance relocation services, including residential and commercial moving, logistics and distribution, packing and storage services, and automobile transportation. We operate our own warehouse-storage and document storage facilities and can satisfy any household and commercial storage needs. In addition, we currently handle international and overseas moves to more than ninety (90) different countries around the world."

"Finally," he continues, "we provide pre- and post-relocation related services, including packing, unpacking, crating, uncrating, and box delivery, as well as, the handling of artwork, safes, grandfather clocks, appliances, light fixtures and chandeliers. We are proud to be named among the top moving firms in the country, as well as being proud of our outstanding and consistent service standards."

Learn more about the company by visiting the web pages at <http://www.transtarmoving.com/>.

###

For more information about Transtar Moving Company, contact the company here: Transtar Moving Company Wayne Labascio (855) 720-7833 customerservice@transtarmoving.com 925 North Leola Road, PO Box 570, Moorestown NJ 08057

Transtar Moving Company

Website: <http://www.transtarmoving.com/>

Email: customerservice@transtarmoving.com

Phone: (855) 720-7833

Powered by PressAdvantage.com