January 12, 2017

January 12, 2017 -
Debby McKinney, co-founder of Emerald Coast Women in Business (ECWIB) in Niceville, Florida, has announced an upcoming meet up event. McKinney recently made known that the ECWIB will be meeting on January 17, 2017 in Destin, Florida, for the event which is hosted by Kacy Turpin of G&Co Art Gallery and sponsored by Valerie Dezern with Nerium as well as Dr. Lizzie Snow with Rise Chiropractic in Destin.

"We want to give all women business owners a chance to connect and network with others, and to showcase their business," says Debby McKinney.

Emerald Coast Women in Business hosts free monthly events that allow women to connect with other women entrepreneurs and business owners in an informal setting. In these events, women share business insights and tips and have the opportunity to market their own businesses.

The event, which will be held at G & Co Art Gallery, on Emerald Coat Parkway in Destin, includes finger foods and various door prizes from businesses being showcased. Debby says that this is an event that women in business would not want to miss.

"You just have no idea how these events help women to network and meet others like them," she states. "We welcome all women, whether you're a business owner, entrepreneur, working in the nonprofit sector, or are currently looking for employment."

Debby McKinney states that there is no membership fee or obligation to attend. The monthly events rotate with regards to location and host, although most are held in the Destin or Miramar Beach areas. The January event will begin at 5:30 p.m. and end around 7:30 p.m. Debby points out that the ECWIB is always looking for event hosts and sponsors, and urges those interested to contact her for more information about hosting an event in the future.

The January Meet Up will begin with introductions, with each business woman having a chance to introduce herself and her business. It is set to include educational and inspirational networking activities as well as announcements from the club and various other activities.
