Ira Rosen, co-founder of Scottsdale, Arizona based Mojo Global, has recently announced that the company has received a new string of five star ratings for their innovative lead generation system. Rosen states that he is proud that Mojo Global has achieved so many consistent positive ratings and that clients are mentioning their exceptional five star experience and their Mojo Global success stories.

"We're all so proud of those success stories from our clients," says Ira Rosen. "We hear from clients every single day with positive reviews on the system."

Rosen states that clients continue to tell them how easy it was to implement their lead generation system and how quickly it begins to deliver results. He states that one of the things clients tell them is that they appreciate how flexible the system is and how it can be used in virtually any niche and any industry.

"Whether you're an auto dealership or a real estate agent, this system is going to help you reach and convert those leads," Rosen says.

The co-founder states that Mojo Global receives 5-star rating for 1st class services on a regular basis, and that those interested in reading through the reviews simply have to visit them online or like their official

Facebook page, where testimonials from clients are published weekly. Clients on the company's Facebook page regularly post comments on the ease of use and effectiveness of the system, often bringing focus to the Mojo Global customer service team stating how helpful they are in answering questions and generally helping to get the system going.

Rosen states that the company appreciates all of the 5-star endorsements it has received and says that he and Cory Michael Sanchez, the other co-founder, look forward to reading the reviews every day as they come in. He states that their goal with the system is to offer businesses a better way to add contacts and convert leads to sales, and based on the reviews he states that he feels they are reaching that goal.

Those interested in learning more or in reading through the various Mojo Global 5-star endorsements left for Rosen, Sanchez and Mojo Global in general can do so on the company's official website.
