January 12, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

OriginalColoringPages.com has launched its new website. The site is offering free coloring pages for every age group.

Phoenix AZ: Original Coloring Pages and Montgomery Peterson are pleased to announce the launch of a new coloring book website for the benefit of people of all ages. The site was created by Peterson in an effort to provide no-charge coloring pages for all audiences. New coloring books are produced monthly by Amazon published author Peterson. The books are designed to be the highest quality possible, while making them affordable for every audience. New content and pages are being added to the site frequently.

Speaking to an interviewer, Montgomery Peterson explained, "Imagine how boring a world without color would be. Now, imagine the same world, but with the opportunity to color it any way you prefer. This ability is reflected in the content available for download from the coloring pages we provide. We have created hundreds of free pages available to download and print and we promise never to have associated costs, fees or purchases in the process."

He continued, "We have created hundreds of free coloring pages suitable for kids, parents, teachers, students and individuals of all ages. We encourage users of the website to feel free to contact us with any ideas about new coloring pages which you would like to see added to the site. Parents can feel free to download as many pages as you like, print them out at home and let your children enjoy the creative joy of coloring."

The website provides hundreds of subjects in dozens of categories. The level of complexity is from simple to elaborate. There are categories for animals, people, trucks, super heroes, cartoon characters, imaginary dragons, princesses, kings and many more. There are images of celebrities in the entertainment and sports field, as well as those who are best known for political prominence. Brief descriptions are given for each of the celebrities.

The most popular pages run the gamut from holidays, to seasons, to individual animals. Cartoon characters and fantasy creatures are all represented. The collections wouldn't be complete without monsters, the oceans and toys.
