North Texas Collision Center Provides Insurance Claim Filings For Customers

January 16, 2017

January 16, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

North Texas Collision Center offers high-quality customer service to residents in the local Dallas/Fort Worth Area. The center is a family owned and operated local business.

Arlington TX: North Texas Collision Center and Edward Pena are pleased to announce that they provide assistance in preparing and filing insurance claims for automobile damage due to collisions, ranging from fender benders to more serious collisions. When a vehicle is scraped by a runaway shopping cart, or a nearby car door in a parking lot, a vehicle owner often wants to take steps to restore the vehicle to pristine condition. Whether the damage is significant enough to warrant an insurance claim or not, taking the vehicle to a quality repair center is needed to repair the damage.

The Arlington TX collision repair center handles the insurance claim and paperwork for their customers. The body shop has been working for many years efficiently filing claims for customers. The skilled and experienced technicians work on the vehicle while making sure that they have everything needed to repair the vehicle in its entirety, even if it was not included in the original estimate.

A spokesperson for the collision center explained, "In working with the insurance companies, we advocate on your behalf to get everything necessary in order to get your vehicle back to pristine condition. We work with a number of insurance carriers, including Geico, Progressive, Allstate, State Farm, Farmers United and USAA. We have the needed experience and training to get the job done."

The customer pool includes vehicle owners, dealers and rental companies. The company can respond to the need for collision repair for various makes and models. The jobs range in size. The professionals will quickly provide a free estimate, without the need for an appointment. The company welcomes walk-in customers.

Because the insurance claims and documentation are handled for customers, vehicle collision repair is a hassle-free experience. The work is done at a competitive price with no time spent fighting with the insurance company.
