

Pensacola Speaker And Entrepreneur Dan Vega Announces New Talk Show Episodes

January 19, 2017

January 19, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Dan Vega Pensacola businessman, has announced new episodes of his talk show. Called Tuesdays with Dan, the talk show regularly interviews business and professional individuals and brings those episodes to entrepreneurs in an effort to coach them through today's economic environment.

Dan Vega is an entrepreneur as well as a successful speaker, business coach and talk show host. He has personally seen success in a number of business ventures and niches including sales, management, consulting, and marketing.

"I've been in business for many years," Vega states. "So I understand business and I understand how to overcome hurdles in the business world."

The Pensacola entrepreneur has served as consultant for a number of Fortune 500 companies and has created webinars and informational videos in addition to his regular weekly talk show which airs Tuesday mornings at 8:30 a.m. CST on MyTV35. The talk show host states that he has compiled a number of new interviews that he believes are sure to be helpful to those building a business or anyone in the business realm.

Vega himself began his journey into the world of entrepreneurs when he was just 19 years of age. He has worked over the past 20 years to build his reputation and has during that time inspired thousands. His Tuesdays with Dan allows him to provide business coaching and expertise through interviews with celebrities and other entrepreneurs. Vega states that it is unfortunate that many business owners focus so much on customers that they never take time to further their education about business. He says that his new episodes are designed to help business owners to learn better ways of conducting business to help them reach success.

"Whatever you may think you are facing," says the Pensacola speaker, "I'm sure someone has faced it before. These episodes include insights from some of the most brilliant minds in the business world and are sure to include information that you will want to hear."

Those interested can tune in to Tuesdays with Dan to hear insights from entrepreneurs or visit the official website of Dan Vega LLC to learn more.
