January 17, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Findmate offers free online dating opportunities with a database of men and women in dozens of countries around the world. The website offers filters to connect people for social and romantic purposes.

Fremont CA: Findmate and Eduard Jackson are pleased to announce that they are celebrating the first year of operation since the launch of the website and dating service. The website was created to assist in connecting people around the world using online means. The purpose is designed for social and romantic purposes. The website is streamlined so that users only receive messages from the types of people they are interested in.

To date, there are more than one hundred thousand members with one thousand or more joining the Findmate dating site each day. More than 180 countries are represented in the database. The emphasis on Asian countries as part of the name is not a limit to the countries which are represented. Thailand, Philippines, Vietnam, Indonesia and Malaysia and many of the major cities in these countries are part of dating database.

The sign-up process is free of charge and is easy to do. Those interested in finding online dating opportunities can sign up in just a few minutes and will then receive notifications for members in the categories where they have interest. Log-in can be accomplished through the website or with a Facebook account.

The image gallery includes a country and city location, as well as one or more images which portray the pictures which the members wish to share. In addition to the pictures, there is a sentence or two which describes any particular points of interest which characterize the member. There is also any limitations in the type of person which is desired in the relationships engendered through the online dating site.

By clicking on the individual images, more information from the member is provided. A description of who they are and what type of activities and characteristics make them unique. Hobbies and other likes and dislikes are included in the profiles.
