Maid First Cleaning Service offers cutting edge task completion by every member of the professional team. Each team member is well-trained, reliable and very professional.

New York NY: Maid First Cleaning Service and Mike Green are pleased to announce that they have reached their one-year anniversary in the New York area. The cleaning professionals are fully trained and very reliable. Their techniques and equipment are the latest in the marketplace. For the convenience of busy customers, cleaning appointments can be booked online. An instant quote and scheduling a cleaning requires less than two minutes. The online cost calculator is easy to access and utilize.

According to a spokesperson for the cleaning services NYC firm, ?We can offer results which our competitors cannot. The quality of our cleaning service is top tier. We work to make each customer happy by offering a fully personalized service. Our professional cleaning team is available seven days a week. A clean home is more than just the appearance; it is a boost in the overall health of the inhabitants.?

?When it is time to get rid of dusty shelves and the grime from counter-tops,? he continues, ?we can respond quickly. We don't have long contracts for our customers to commit to. There are no minimum number of weeks or months required to invest in our maid service. You can cancel whenever you wish with no questions asked. We ensure that all workers are interviewed and pass a detailed background check.?

The basic tasks which are part of the maid service include cleaning of all accessible surfaces of dust and debris. The maids tidy up, empty trash and recycling products. They also vacuum and mop floors as required. In the kitchen, counter-tops and cabinet exteriors are wiped and the appliance exteriors are addressed. The inside of the microwave is also cleaned. In the bedroom, the maids make up the bed. In the bathroom, they scrub and sanitize the toilet, sink and shower. Mirrors and glass surfaces are cleaned.
