January 20, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Villa Sanyanga is a vacation property in Phuket, Thailand. The company recently announced that they are officially open for business and ready to book reservations for their seven bedroom villa. The property includes a free 15 seat mini bus with driver as well as maids and a private chef.

"We would like our guests to enjoy the beauty of our luxury villa," says a spokesperson for the villa. "It sits just above Surin Beach and it has plenty of space for everyone in your party."

The villa can sleep up to 18 people comfortably, according to the company spokesperson, and is located in an exclusive residential development on the West Coast of Thailand. The villa includes seven luxury bedroom suites with en-suite bathrooms, as well as high speed internet with wi-fi on all levels, a desktop computer and laptop, as well as a printer for guest use. More about the villa, including pictures of rooms and the property in general can be seen on the company's official Facebook page.

"We have everything you could possibly need for a family getaway or a work retreat," states the company spokesperson. "You will enjoy stunning ocean views over the Andaman Sea and landscaping that is lush with coconut palms."

The company states that their villa is a good choice for family reunions or other large groups and that it includes a number of separate private areas. The villa sleeps up to 18 adults but can accommodate up to 20 if children are present. More on the space available and specifics on each room can be seen on the company's new website at <http://www.luxuryrentalphuket.com/>.

Other amenities in the new property include Sonos surround sound, satellite TV with four screens, a large terrace with infinity pool and water bar, and a variety of outdoor luxuries, such as sun loungers and a barbecue grill. Babysitting is also available as well as special meals for children, three cots, two car seats, and three highchairs.

The company states that it is the perfect vacation villa for family and friends, and urges those interested to learn more about the new accommodations on their Google+ page.
