January 18, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Steven Klitzner of Law Office of Steven N. Klitzner, PA offers 38 years of legal experience and knowledge in the area of IRS tax resolution. Since 1979, Klitzner has been receiving awards and ratings from peers and clients.

North Miami Beach FL: Law Office of Steven N. Klitzner, PA and attorney Steven Klitzner are pleased to announce that he is celebrating 38 years in practice this year. His area of specialty is IRS tax resolution. Over the years, Mr. Klitzner has been the recipient of several awards and statements of achievements. This is an indication that both his clients and his peers recognize the quality of his work and the extent of his knowledge in the field of tax resolution law.

When there is a need for an IRS tax resolution attorney, Florida businesses and residents should choose the most highly qualified and knowledgeable attorney and legal practice to assist with resolving their IRS issues. Whether it's tax debt, liens, levies, unfiled returns or audit representation the attorney will represent the client's interest with the IRS.

Awards which have been received by Steven include the Florida Super Lawyers 2015-2017. He is Avvo Rated at 10.0 and he is Martindale-Hubbell rated at AV. In November, he was appointed as a member of the Tax Freedom Institute (TFI) Advisory Board. TFI is an organization protecting taxpayer rights since 1993. These recognitions and awards are matched by the respect and positive testimonials of the many clients which have been served over the years.

Speaking in a recent interview, Steven Klitzner explained, "I am an Attorney at Law who limits my practice to IRS tax resolution and helping people get rid of their IRS tax problems throughout South Florida and the nation. I maintain my knowledge base and training for the benefit of my clients. Both individuals and businesses rely on my experience in dealing with the IRS and successfully resolving their tax issues. As I always say, all IRS problems have a solution?"
